JOHNSON, NEGRO POLITICIAN, SAYS PLENTY OF WOOD MONEY WAS USED

Georgia Leader Declares, However, He Conserved Low-den Bank Roll.

SENATE COMMITTEE GOES TO ST. LOUIS

Charges That Palmer Misused
Powers of Office Next Aired.

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, July 8.—"After hearing testimony of Henry Lincoln Johnson, negro republican national committeeman from Georgia, the senate probing committee adjourned today to meet in St. Louis tomorrow, where the Palmer probe will be begun.

The negro Johnson testified that he had spent $150 in behalf of the Lowden campaign in Georgia. He said there was "a wild use of money" by the Wood supporters in that state.
Johnson took occasion to advocate a law against lynching, saying that 75 per cent of the negroes of Georgia were restrained from voting through fear of lynching.

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, July 8.—A more sensational probe into pre-convention presidential campaign expenditures was looked for today when it was announced that the senate committee would inquire into the political activities of Attorney General Palmer and the Governor Lowden campaign in Georgia.

The committee is expected to take under consideration a petition filed by Wm. Armstrong, a Chicago attorney, asking for investigation of charges that Mr. Palmer in order to further his campaign interests, quashed several indictments against large corporations and released violators of the prohibition law.

The Georgia Lowden inquiry was expected to center around Henry Lincoln Johnson, negro republican national committeeman of Georgia, concerning the expenditure of $9,000, which Lowden campaign managers declared they sent to him.

The forces behind the presidential campaign of General Leonard Wood spent between $65,000 and $80,000 in the Georgia campaign and $20,000 of Lowden money was spent by one agent there alone, it was declared before the senate committee by Henry Lincoln Johnson. In addition to the thousands of dollars in money contributed by the Wood forces, Johnson declared, Frank H. Hitchcock, field manager for Wood "promised post-master's salaries" to Wood backers in Georgia.

Criminal Term of Court on Monday

The county court will be convened Monday by Judge W. T. Lowe to take up the criminal docket for trial by jury. The term will last one week.
A heavy docket is set for disposal.

Curfew Rings For Fido, He Must Stay In

CURFEW has rung for Fido.
Strict orders were issued this afternoon from the Sheriff's office against dogs being allowed to run at large after sun down. Under the new Alabama dog law, canines are not permitted to be at large at night, whether they are muzzled or not, nor whether they have tags or bear none.
The law provides that owners must see that their dogs are inside the owners' premises from sundown to daylight. According to Sheriff May the law will be enforced to the letter.
Several persons have suffered narrow escapes from dog bites in the last few days, it was stated.

ALABAMA ORATOR IS SEEKING LIGHT

Would Like to Know How Democratic Nominee Feels Towards Liquor.

(International News Service)
DAYTON, O., July 8.—A demand for a clear statement on his stand on prohibition from Richmond P. Hobson, leader of the prohibition forces of the democratic party, cropped out from the numerous telegrams of congratulation received today by Gov.
Cox.

The wire asked for an immediate reply and the Governor announced it would be given in due time but would not indicate just what or when this would be. It was learned today that Governor Cox has decided to visit Washington for a conference with the president.

(International News Service)
DAYTON, O., July 8.—Like a soldier who has caught the smell of powder on the eve of battle and is eager to get into the fray, so Governor James M. Cox, democratic presidential nominee, finds himself tugging at the traces while waiting to jump into the campaign with all the physical and mental strength in his possession.

which lifts the ban on trade between construed as a recognition of the soviet, state department officials let it be known today.

SALT LAKE, July 8.—Good schools

C. Miller, of Tacoma, Washington, eral session of the National Educational association, in session here. A resolution calling for immediate action on the suffrage amendment by those states which have not yet ratified it was introduced at last night's meeting of the resolutions committee of Texas.

tween Villa and agents of the Mexican provisional government were officially confirmed in dispatches received today from the American consul at Chihuahua.

persed a revolting force under Rio-afternoon, and totalled $15,000.

The city now has paid to the Leftwich company approximately $30,000 and the payments are getting larger each month, as additional men are employed and the paving crews get more numerous.

Work of laying gravel on the Somerville road has been started and the surfacing crews will finish up the road bed within the next few weeks, if weather conditions are favorable. The curbing abolished under Section 30 of the army reorganization act and all reserves will be released at once accorps is not affected by the new orders.

NEGRO SHOT TO DEATH BY MOB

(International News Service.)
ELLINGTON, Mo., July 8.—This section of the county was quiet today following twenty-four hours of tense excitement during which one negro was shot to death by a mob of infuriated whites. The negro, a member of a gang of convicts, is alleged to have assaulted the daughter of a prominent farmer.

AIR REEKS WITH ODOR OF RUM AS BOTTLES BURST

Atmosphere adjacent to the county jail bore a well nigh forgotten odor this afternoon as flying glass and the thump of bottle against bottle told the story of another "destruction" of confiscated wet goods by Sheriff May.

Six gallons of whiskey, the greater part "white corn" and ten barrels of near beer, prohibited by the laws of Alabama, fell before the official wrecking crew.
The liquor was seized in recent raids, the near beer being taken in one lot from a local market.

STATEMENT AVERS CITIES INDEBTED TO WATER COMPANY IN SUM OF $50,000

Albany-Decatur Have Failed to Meet Their Obligations, it Is Charged

PRESENT RATES UNJUST PRES. WEAKLEY STATES

Charges Schedule Is Crudely Drawn, Head of Water Company Declares.

Declaring the municipalities of Albany and Decatur have not met their obligations assumed under the old water contract and are now indebted to the Alabama Water company in the sum of nearly $50,000, the company, in a statement today, called upon citizens to cooperate in the "present emergency".

The company's statement follows closely on the heels of the action of the Alabama Public Service commission in dismissing the petition of the company for increased rates here on the grounds that it had no jurisdiction in view of "existing contracts" between the company and the Twin Cities. The case was dismissed Monday.

The statement, which is signed by John B. Weakley, president of the company, declares its belief that many of the present rates of consumers are inequitable and "some of them oppressive, the schedule is crudely drawn and in many cases the method of charging for the service is not just or proper, either to the water company or the consumers."

The company declares that the water rates to private consumers were bored, in a measure, upon the implied agreement on the part of the municipalities to pay certain sums for fire protection and charges that the municipalities, having failed "to a very considerable extent to meet the obligations assumed by them."
The water company sought a revision of rates. The statement says further: "On a recent date the city council (Albany) agreed to hold a special meeting for the consideration of the rate question," but declares that when representatives of the company appeared at the city hall, they were informed that no meeting of the council would be held.

nouncement of his support of the republican ticket, made yesterday by Senator Hiram Johnson, has been received with enthusiasm at the Harding headquarters. It is reported that a strong effort is being made to induce Senator Johnson to make a speaking tour of the country in the interest of the republican ticket.
A pledge of support "by the whole Taft family" has been received by Senator Harding.

NO INTERVENTION (International News Service.) Pol- and has not yet made formal request to the British government for help.

RIVAL CLAIMS MADE (International News Service.) LONDON, July 8.—Rival claims of victory on the Russo-Polish battle front were received today. Both sides claimed successes.

Premier Grabsky, of Poland, arrived here today to seek military aid from the allies. He said the Russian Bolsheviks had failed to crush Poland.

It is reported from the front that the soviets have concentrated every available soldier on the Polish lines and are making desperate efforts to break through.

CAPT. GRAFTON IS DEAD AT HIS HOME IN ROME, GEORGIA

Capt. T. E. Grafton, one of the leaders in the Limestone-Morgan Bridge movement, is dead at his home in Rome, Ga., after an illness of several weeks. News of Captain Graf-ton's death was received here late yesterday in a telephone message from Col. L. A. Dean.

While Captain Grafton's condition was known to be very serious, the news of his death came as a great shock to his many friends here.
During the time he has made his headquarters here, while working in the interest of the bridge project, Capt. Grafton had come to be regarded with high esteem by hundreds of Twin Cities residents.

Captain Grafton was head of the Rome Fair association and was working on plans for the fall exhibition at the time of his death. When the war with Germany was declared, Capt. Grafton immediately answered the call and served many months with the colors in France. After his discharge, he was mentioned for courage and efficiency by his superior officers during a congressional investigation.

BOLSHEVISTS HAVE POLES ON THE RUN

(International News Service)
BERLIN, July 8.—The Prussian bolshevist army which captured Rovno from the Poles has cut the strategic Kieff-Kovel railway, said a Copenhagen dispatch. The Russian offensive continues in full swing along the entire battle front.
The Polish council of defense has issued a proclamation calling upon all men of military age to rally to the flag. The Poles expect aid from the western powers within a short time.
Rumors that the Polish resistance has collapsed persisted today.

(International News Service.) LONDON, July 8.—The allies will not intervene in the war between Russia and Poland unless the independence of the Polish nation is threatened, it was stated this afternoon. Pol-to the British government for help.

"BALLOT CHEAPENS WOMEN AND MAKES MEN COWARDS"

Former Suffragist Appeals to Tennessee Legislature Not to Ratify Amendment.

(International News Service)
LOS ANGELES, July 8.—A plea to the Tennessee legislature against ratification of the suffrage amendment has been sent to W. K. Anderson by Miss Annie Brock, of this city, former woman's suffrage leader.

The blackberry crop is endangered by the locust, according to Dame Rumor. Many residents of Albany and Decatur have refused to eat the delectable berry, fearing poison as a result of the periodical visit of the locust, a winged insect resembling the grasshopper. According to the older inhabitants, the locust visits this section every seven years and during the season he is here, the blackberry is likely to cause the illness of those eating it.

Many negroes, having heard the story, have put the blackberry on their blacklist and are refusing to touch them. A number of white persons, also, are turning against the berry. Despite the fact there has been a good sale of early berries here, and the crop is said to be one of the largest in recent years.

Generally blackberries, served with cream or in pies, provide one of the most popular desserts and many gallons annually are canned here. If the locust theory of poisoning is definitely established, it would be a great blow to the housewives of the Twin Cities.

INCREASED RATES SOUGHT BY PHONE COMPANY IN STATE

MONTGOMERY, Ala., July 8.— (Special)—The Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph company proposes to spend $1,255,345 in permanent improvements in Alabama during 1920 if supplies, can be obtained and rates are established by the public service commission which will yield a fair return on the money actually invested in the state, according to a formal statement filed with the commission and an oral statement of Hunt Chipley, vice-president and general counsel of the corporation, submitted to the public service commission.

The statements were intended as further support of the company's petition for permission to make increases in service rates which has been before the commission for some time.
Mr. Chipley showed that his company has an actual investment in Alabama of $3,511,724 and that if the plant of materials the investment would be about 80 per cent greater. On the actual investment the company's earnings last year were 2.34 per cent.
This percentage of profit includes only physical property and no consideration has been given to a yield on in-tangible property, including capitalization and franchise.

It was shown that at no time since the corporation began its development in Alabama had it obtained the legal rate of profit, eight per cent. Earnings during the past four years based in per centage of profit were: 1916, 3.41 per cent; 1917, 3.53 per cent; 1918, 2.06 per cent; 1919, 2.34 per cent. Earnings by cities are now being prepared and will be filed with the commission. It was stated that the net earnings from the investment in Birmingham were less than one per cent, being only 27 one hundredths of one per cent.

THE PRESS AND THE PRESIDENCY

The Fourth Estate has come more fully into its own in the good year 1920 than ever before. Democrats and Republicans alike have invaded the sanctum sanctorum and snatched forth a burning brand to lead on to victory. Warren G. Harding and James M. Cox are both from Ohio and are both editors and owners of newspapers. This may be only a coincidence, or it may mean that the two major political parties have come to realize the fitness of men who deal constantly with public affairs to direct the Ship of State. Certainly there can be no gaining the fact that in the pivotal state of the Middle West the newspaper route is the royal road to political preferment. The scribes from Canada to the Gulf, from the Golden Gate to the wind-swept shores of Maine will feel a bit perked up every time they are reminded of the honors thrust upon leaders of their profession. And all the publishers will hope that with a fellow sufferer in the White House, the deluge of free official advertising will cease and the smug bandits who have forced the price of white paper skyward will be treated with that consideration that is the due of robbers.

THE HUMAN SIDE OF GOVERNOR COX

James Middleton Cox, governor of Ohio and democratic presidential nominee, is a man of tender impulses. This was rather clearly indicated by news dispatches relating his movements shortly after he had learned from the news wire in his own office that he had been chosen as the standard bearer of his party. The first thing that he did after being advised of the great honor thrust upon him was to kiss his wife. He next proceeded to the composing room, where he shook hands with the union printers in his employ. Then he made a hasty pilgrimage to the home of a venerable friend, a man of eighty-seven summers, so that he might be first to carry the tidings to one whom he knew was much interested in his career. A visit to the grave of his mother followed. Shortly afterwards Governor Cox motored to the little town near which he was born to shake the hands of those with whom he had been reared; those who had known him in adversity and in prosperity; those who had aided him in his early struggles.

A day's program like this is somewhat out of the ordinary. It stamps Governor Cox as very human and as deeply sympathetic. He is just about the kind of regular fellow that a presidential candidate should be who has graduated from newspaper ranks and has become not only a publisher but also a statesman. A big heart may not be a valuable asset in the estimation of the coldly calculating, but it is something that every public man should possess.

The Marion Star and the Dayton News should be able to get print paper without fatterer the profiteers.

With Reed and Watson supporting the ticket, the Democratic outlook becomes less cheerful.

Hiram Johnson has finally assimilated his crow and is propagandizing for Harding and Coolidge.

"Conquer with Cox, is the new democratic slogan."

JUST IN PASSING*COX'S LABOR RECORD

"I notice the editor's claim in the Daily of yesterday that Governor Cox has a good labor record," said a local union man. "It is pretty well known in labor circles that Cox favored a lot of legislation favorable to labor when he was first governor of Ohio, and that he was for the model workman's compensation law, just as the editor says. I notice that President Harrison, of the Alabama Federation of Labor, is reported to have voted for Cox at the last, and I see that William Green, secretary and treasurer of the United Mine workers of America, has wired his congratulations to Mr. Cox. All this looks to me like Cox will get a strong labor vote in November. According to reports I hear from the Montreal convention, William Green is one of the most popular and influential members of the executive council of the A. F. of L. I hear that when he was put in nomination by John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine workers, that Mr. Lewis said Green was a man of "high ideals", and that when Mr. Green was formally reelected to the executive council that he was more loudly cheered than any of the many other newly elected members of the council. It is reported too, that in case Samuel Gompers drops out as president that William Green is slated for president of the A. F. of L. It is at least worthy of notice that William L. Harrison voted for Cox, and that William Green has congratulated the democratic candidate."

A Near Theft

Chief Deputy Sheriff McGuthra began looking for the automobile belonging to the Sheriff's office Wednesday morning and long was his face when he couldn't find it. The car just naturally wasn't where he left it the night before and thoughts of car thieves flashed through his mind. He made inquiries of other officers without getting any "clues". Plans were being made to telephone to the officers of nearby communities to watch for thieves, when somebody remembered the auto had been sent to a garage for repairs.

Must Be Wrong

"That old dope about the Devil whipping his wife when it rains while the sun shines must be wrong," said J. U. Smith. "If the dope isn't wrong, believe me Satan's spouse is getting plenty of punishment these days. On a number of occasions lately the sun has shone while the rain poured. Wednesday afternoon was a particular instance."

In Los Angeles

Joe Bell, who is touring the Pacific coast, is in Los Angeles, Cal., viewing the bathing and other beauties and will go to Portland this week. Mr. Bell was in Texas last week and from Portland will go to Denver and home via the Northern Pacific route.

Likes His Job

Working for Uncle Sam is good stuff, according to Louis Ling, popular leader of the Albany high school's football team last season. Mr. Ling has accepted a position in the Albany postoffice and is trying out his Uncle Samuel as an employer. From Ling's reports, Uncle is a good fellow to work for.

HOSPITAL SITE TO BE SELECTED SOON

DR. J. D. HOBBS, CHAIRMAN, RETURNS FROM MEMPHIS, BEGINS WORK

The city in which the new Baptist hospital is to be located will be selected soon, according to Dr. J. D. Hobbs, chairman of the location committee for the hospital, who has just returned from Memphis, Tenn., where he was operated on.

Dr. Hobbs announced in Birmingham that he will start actively immediately in the inspection of the different cities that have submitted propositions to the committee.

To the Patrons of the Alabama Water Company Albany and Decatur Alabama:

The Water Company deems it proper at this time to submit to its patrons a statement in regard to water rates in the two cities. For many years we have been furnishing water at the very low rates set out in certain contracts made by the old Decatur Water Works Company with the cities of Decatur and New Decatur. Under the terms and conditions of these contracts, the two municipalities assumed certain duties and obligations with reference to the payment for water furnished them for fire protection and other purposes. These obligations have not been met, and both municipalities are now indebted to the Water Company in large sums, aggregating about $50,000.

Feeling that the rates fixed for water to the private consumers were based in a measure upon the implied agreement on the part of the municipalities to pay certain sums for fire protection, and the municipalities having failed to a very considerable extent to meet the obligation assumed by them, and having in view in the case of the City of New Decatur, now the City of Albany, that the contract called for a revision of the rates after the lapse of ten years, the Water Company made a number of applications to the City Council of Albany for a revision of such rates, and offered to leave the settlement of the question to arbitration, or to fix rates similar to the rates now being paid in other municipalities of like situation, or to leave the entire matter to the Alabama Public Service Commission. The Water Company has endeavored for more than a year past to get the rate question settled with the City Council of Albany. We feel that the rate in both cities should be the same, and in as much as the larger part of our business is done in Albany we first began our negotiations with the officials of that City. On a recent date the City Council agreed to hold a special meeting for the consideration of the rate question, and the President of the Water Company arranged to attend such meeting, but at the hour appointed the members of the Council failed to arrive, and we were notified that the meeting would not be held, that the Water Company would be left to its remedies at law.

We, therefore, filed a petition with the Alabama Public Service Commission asking for a revision of the rates in the two municipalities. This Commission decided that it was without jurisdiction because of the existence of a contract between the Water Company and the cities.

Although the Water Company is clearly entitled to a revision of its rates under the terms of the contracts it finds itself now in a position where the City of Albany has refused to appoint a representative to arbitrate such rates, has refused to negotiate with the Water Company at the meeting called for that purpose, and on the other hand the Alabama Public Service Commission has stated that it is without jurisdiction. It is not necessary here for the Water Company to state, that it along with all other people and public service companies, has been seriously affected by the increased prices of material and labor, and the difficulties of rendering service to its consumers at the present time. There seems to be nothing for the Water Company to do, except to strictly apply the rates set out in our contracts with the municipalities, and so far as it is able, to continue to operate its plant under such rates.

The Water Company believes that many of these rates are inequitable and some of them oppressive, the schedule is crudely drawn, and in many cases the method of charging for the service is not just or proper, either to the Water Company or the consumers. We have been forced, however, by the conditions related to make our bills in accordance with these rates, and the object of this statement is to lay the matter frankly before the communities which we serve, and to say that if any injustice is being done, the fault does not lie at the door of the Water Company.

We trust our patrons will appreciate the situation and cheerfully pay the bills which are rendered to them.

Yours very truly,

ALABAMA WATER COMPANY

W. C. T. U. DECLARES WAR ON PAINT, POWDER; GOODBYE ROUGE

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, July 8.—War on powder and paint has been declared by the same women who were so important a factor in effecting the passage of the Prohibition Amendment. Satisfied with their accomplishment in that direction, they are now turning their attention to the abuse of cosmetics, and if their utterances and promises on the subject count for anything an anti-cosmetic amendment is to be feared.

Fourteen hundred women, constituting the membership of the Kings County Women's Christian Temperance Union, will form the nucleus of the organization to start the onslaught on the paint and powder excess.

At the last meeting of the season of the Frances Willard Union of the W. C. T. U., of New York, Mrs. Geo. F. Pashley, State superintendent, announced the new platform of the organization and was hailed with loud applause.

"By dint of persistency, influence and precept the W. C. T. U., will endeavor to wipe out this cosmetic evil," Mrs. Pashley said. "The modesty of our young girls in dressing, the universal popularity of paint and powder, have reached the stage where it behooves all Christian women to put forth their best efforts to save our girls from these demoralizing influences."

Mrs. Pashley said she thought things had grown much worse since the war. This she attributed to the fascination of men in uniform for young girls.

"Trying to cater to and please the soldier," she said, "has led to lax manners, which brought calamitous results."

Head off the Milk Slump

No wonder Mrs. Cow is crying for help. Milk-making materials, especially protein, are becoming scarcer every day, as pastures dry out. A cow can't any more keep up her milk production without protein than you can build a fence without posts.

A cow can't produce milk that is lacking in protein, so she produces less milk.

Feed Purina Cow Chow

Cows on pasture are sure to let the milk production slide down unless a balanced concentrate is fed. With a good cow a gallon of Purina Cow Chow during July should make one and one-half gallons of extra milk.

CHANDLER'S

Added 50%
To Tire Mileage

A Boston tire dealer, for three years, has gathered data on Miller Tires. And he reports as follows:

Users find their tire mileage increased from 50 per cent to 75 per cent.

Blow-outs have been eliminated.

Uniform mileage has been accomplished.

Only six tires in 1,000 come back for adjustment—only five Miller Cords in a year.

A Louisville dealer compared wear and mileage on 116 styles of tires which he repaired. The constant Miller supremacy has caused him now to handle the Miller Tires only.

A California stage line made million-mile comparisons with 21 leading makes. And the Miller won by long odds.

You owe yourself a comparison on your own car. The Miller is the tire of the day.

Great Soldier's Monuments.

Greatest of all monuments of Emperor Napoleon are the two arches of triumph, L'Arc de Triomphe and L'Arc du Carrousel, both of which were erected by the devoted Parisians that all the world might know the military supremacy which was theirs under Napoleon. Equal to these in importance is the tomb of the emperor, Les Invalides, which he decided should be a home for aged and disabled soldiers, but which the Parisians turned into a great museum to house countless trophies of his wars and articles of his personal equipment, as well as the body of the national hero, who wished to be buried on the banks of the Seine amidst his beloved "children."

Today's Super-Six

vs

the Earlier Hudson

TIME only can reveal the true value of an automobile. Remember that each succeeding Hudson has been a better car than its predecessor.

It is notable that every Hudson owner holds his particular car to be of the best series, but nevertheless, those who get today's Hudson enjoy a motoring satisfaction as much advanced over the earlier Super-Six as it was in advance of the other cars of its day.

The basic principle, exclusive to Hudson, which makes its Super-Six motor the fleetest and most enduring remains unchanged. But in a hundred ways, it and the entire car is enhanced. There is greater smoothness, easier driving and freedom from annoyances, considered common to all cars.

The record of any Super-Six is convincing, but the present Hudson attains almost to the height of perfection.

PROVED WHAT IT WOULD DO IN A TWO DAY TRIAL

Mr. Gordon, of York, Ala., declares he is rid of constipation, indigestion, sluggish liver, and kidney trouble.

Heard so much about new medicine, was anxious to try it, and now he is glad that he did.

"I had heard so much about this new medicine Drego, I was anxious to try it, and after two days I was convinced that it was grand medicine," stated Mr. R. B. Gordon, a well known farmer of York, Ala.

"I have suffered all my life from stomach trouble, indigestion, constipation, and a sluggish liver. I've taken medicine after medicine, but none ever did more than temporary good, but I am convinced that Drego is different from the others. It seemed to be the very thing my stomach needed, and the indigestion ceased almost immediately; my bowels began acting regularly and in a smooth, natural manner. My liver got active and the biliousness passed off. My appetite increased and my nerves became calm so that I sleep like a baby. Drego is a great medicine and I think every one should be told about it."

All druggists now sell Drego and it is being especially introduced in Albany by Albany Drug Co., in Decatur by Hilda Drug Co.—Adv.

NEW SAFETY VAULTS MAY THWART WILY "YEGGMEN"

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, July 8.—The Federal Reserve Board is planning to thwart "yeggmen" equipped with jimmies and oxy-acetylene torches, who attempt to burglarize banks in the vaults of which Government money is kept. Using money appropriated for experimental purposes, the board is constructing a number of experimental concrete bank vaults. When the work is complete and the vaults allowed to stand while the concrete "sets," it is proposed to reverse the proceedings and with all the knowledge and skill Government scientists can muster, break into the vaults. The vault which stands the test may be adopted as a standard and others modeled on its construction.

Work on six of these model vaults is nearly half completed at the Bureau of Standards. The work is kept going although the models are in plain view of all persons passing along Connecticut avenue.

The vaults are of concrete, reinforced with every material known to make more impregnable the already staunch walls. There are big plates of hard steel which will be placed inside the concrete. There are iron and steel rails which are thrown in for good measure, and there is in one of the vaults a quantity of hard glass. This glass, it is asserted, will dull the point of the sharpest drill, and repeated contact with the crystal will prove the undoing of the instrument.

When the vaults are ready for the test, concrete specialists and scientists from the Bureau of Standards will be allowed free rein. They can do anything imaginable to break down the concrete wall. They may use dynamite to begin with, and gradually "work up" to the use of higher and more powerful explosives. While the destruction experts are at work in one vault, others will attack another with drills and various devices for boring through the heavy walls.

Officials at the bureau deny the rumor that experts from Sing Sing will be called upon to lend a hand in the most approved method of getting on the inside when admittance is absolutely forbidden. They also scout the tale going the rounds that to lend interest to the work, a keg of brew—once known as beer—will be placed within the walls of each vault, to become the property of the Yeggman who breaks down its defenses.

LIVE APART FROM THE WORLD

People of Northern Korea as Ignorant as Were Their Ancestors Thousands of Years Ago.

Many of the natives in the north of Korea have never seen a white man. A bulletin of the National Geographic society says that they are living among the hills today much as did their ancestors centuries ago, worshipping mythical gods in the rocks and trees on every mountain top, keeping their women in semi-slavery, and dying in ignorance of the world beyond their narrow confines. After the Russo-Japanese war of 1904 the country was opened to foreigners, and the exploration of the northern part progressed by leaps and bounds, until the only extensive unknown area lay along the north central boundary, between the Tumen and Yalu rivers.

The old walls of the ancient city of Musan bear five centuries of history. Few white men have wandered inland to the gates of this city, and except for a few stragglers it lies unknown to the western world. The great central palace or reception hall, remains intact, and close by, in palatial ruins, is the temple guest-house. The smaller public buildings, the gates, the watch towers and most of all, the walls themselves, have their own peculiar fascination, telling their own story or adding a chapter to that of its neighbor.

The Koreans believe the blood of a deer or any wild animal, if drunk when warm, to be a splendid tonic. Tigers' claws, whiskers, bones and teeth are especially valuable, and preparations made from these materials were often given to soldiers before a battle or any especially hazardous enterprise, since they were believed to induce great bravery.

Seven delicious, economical, ready-cooked meat meals

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
Roast Beef For 5-70c	Vienna Style Sausage For 5-60c	Hamburger Steak and Onions For 5-60c	Corned Beef Hash For 5-70c	Sliced Dried Beef—Creamed For 4-30c	Oven Baked Beans For 4-25c	Veal Loaf For 5-60c
In the large size can of Council Roast Beef there are five big helpings of tender, prime ready-cooked beef. Just heat the can in boiling water and you've the meat part of the dinner ready for the table—and the cost is 70c.	A large size can of Council Vienna Sausage is enough for a generous, delicious, bountiful meat meal for the family. Each sausage is a treat in itself—generously stuffed with tender, prime meat that's been smoked and cured to a mild sweetness.	Prime steak—the very best—chopped fine. Just enough onion for flavor, cooked to a turn—there's a real meal. It's all in one large can of Council Hamburger Steak and Onions, ready for the table except for warming.	Tender, juicy, diced Council Corned Beef delicately pickled, with just enough fine boiled potato to give the hash body. Deliciously sauced with choice vegetables and spices all cooked together—that's all that is in a can of Council Corned Beef Hash. It's a wonderful meat and there's not a meat dish more economical.	A meat supper for 30c—only one glass jar of Council Sliced Dried Beef and a simple cream sauce are required. Each wafer slice of beef is tender and seasoned to perfection—and just figure the meat dish for supper for all the folks at a cost of 30c. There is economy for you!	A large can of oven baked beans costing a quarter, is a meal in itself, and note that the Council Beans are genuine oven baked—not steamed or boiled—each bean is, therefore, a meaty, delicate, tender whole and digestible too. Council Baked Beans are as good cold as hot, either with or without tomato sauce.	Just imagine! Two whole pounds of veal loaf for 60c, and Council Veal Loaf is choice, tender, young veal, finely chopped, with just enough pure wholesome cereal to give it body and seasoned to be deliciously appetizing. It is a dish the folks will love; yet it is remarkably cheap.

Why We Use Refinite Soft Water

Reason No. 1

"Immaculate Results"

There is a pleasant thrill awaiting you on opening your package from our laundry.

Daintiness and delicacy have been added to your exquisite garments. Their original lustre is retained; the whiteness is immaculate and as refreshed as if the cloth had been woven anew. The colored fabrics likewise are bright and gleam with the beauty of their design. The most costly frock is unharmed.

It is the perfect laundering obtained by our using Refinite softened water.

Refinite is Nature's own water softening mineral, not a preparation to "break" the water. It collects and holds the hardening elements, leaving the water softer than falling rain.

Soap lathers instantly in Refinite softened water, and "lifts" the dirt with far less washing. No gummy soap curd forms to stiffen and discolor the clothes. The water is improved for drinking purposes, as well, and so velvety soft that we launder woollens, blankets, silks, laces and all fine fabrics that are washable, without damage to color or fibre.

Let us show you how sweet smelling and snowy white Refinite soft water will make your linens.

SEED SELECTION.

(By H. B. Tisdale, Associate Plant Breeder.)

Prepared by Extension Service, Auburn, Ala.
Interest of surprising intensity has been shown in the past two years in the use of high grade planting seeds for Alabama farms. Farmers are beginning to realize as never before the importance of seed selection and the value of high grade seed for planting. The Alabama Experiment Station and Extension Service have been for several years encouraging and demonstrating the practice of seed selection among farmers, and it has been largely due to this work that farmers have come to know the value of good seed.

A representative of the Alabama Experiment Station for six years has been breeding different varieties of cotton for wilt-resistance, working in co-operation with farmers in different sections of the wilt infected land of Alabama. In this work each breeder is assisted in making selections of individual plants having the desired qualities. Large yield, wilt-resistance, earliness and good quality of lint are some of the important qualities in mind when selecting. Each plant is ginned separately and in the spring the seed are planted on rows side by side, one plant to the row on wilt infected land. In the fall individual selections are again made from the plant to row test. The best rows are then picked and ginned separately. The seed from the best rows are planted on increase plots. The seed from the increase plots are used to plant the entire farm. The seed from the entire farm are carefully ginned to prevent mixing and then sold as high grade seed at a reasonable price to farmers who do not care to go to the trouble of breeding cotton for themselves.

Many farmers buy a small quantity of high grade seed from local breeders and plant in a separate patch. They gather the seed from this patch separately and plant their entire crop the following season.

All popular varieties of wilt-resistant cotton are tested in the locality with the breeding plots. The best varieties from these tests are the ones bred and recommended to the farmers of the locality. In a few communities almost all of the farmers grow the same variety of cotton. This plan prevents mixing of the seed at the community gin and renders a uniform product for the market. We hope to induce all communities to grow one variety of cotton. The variety to grow can be determined from the local variety tests.

Work along the same line is being encouraged with corn and peanuts in order that the market may be supplied with a uniform product, making possible and profitable, co-operative marketing, every community should grow the same variety of corn and peanuts. One or two farmers in each community should carry on the breeding work and sell plant seed to the rest of the farmers. The Extension Service of the Alabama Experiment Station will assist any farmer who wishes to begin seed selection for himself or his community.

RYE FOR WINTER GRAZING.

By D. J. Burleson, Extension Agronomist.

Prepared by Extension Service, Auburn, Ala.

To carry livestock without grazing is always expensive. Some grain is often necessary, but grazing furnishes the margin of profit. Permanent pastures may furnish green feed during the "growing" months of the year, but permanent pastures furnish very little grazing from late fall through the winter. Hence, it is usually more expensive to carry cattle through that season than any other. How to provide temporary pasturage for winter is therefore an important question.

Rye is well adapted to the production of green feed when such feed is usually scarce. It may safely be planted earlier than either of the other small grains. While grazing from rye is not quite so palatable as from oats, yet the former is readily grazed by stock when other grazing is scarce. Rye is also a most dependable crop, withstanding unfavorable conditions better than oats or wheat.

Plant early for winter grazing. This should be emphasized, not only for rye but for other crops used as winter grazing. In fact August is not too early to seed rye when the object is grazing. Also when used for this purpose the seedling should be somewhat heavier than for seed production. Five or six pecks is not too much.

Cotton middles furnish an excellent place for seeding rye. After the cotton has been "laid-by" rye may be sown broadcast and covered with a cultivator or a three-row one-horse drill may be used satisfactorily. Very little injury will result from tramping by the cotton pickers.

Planting rye in cotton middles is a good practice, not only because of the feed furnished, but also because the growing plants protect the soil from leaching and washing, and add vegetable matter to the soil. In other words, the use of rye as described is a cheap and effective means of feeding the stock and protecting the land.

Nymphs Raise "Rumpus"

AGAINST RESORT LAWS

(International News Service.)

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 8.—Pity the poor bathing girl of his great seashore resort who needs must keep her dimpled knees covered and her legs incased from the glare of the sun, and men, or go to the "hosegow." What's the use of seashoring and bathing and boardwalking if one cannot dress as she sees fit? "Down with the leagues against bare legs and one-piece suits," they cry. "Bolsheviks of dress," retort the persons who are shocked at what they call "indecent dress."

An organized protest against the Atlantic City rule prohibiting one-piece bathing suits and bare legs was heard at the famous resort when a delegation of beauties, encumbered with the "within the law" bathing suits called on the beach enforcement officer and "kicked."

They rebelled against the law, quoting the "free country" stuff, scored the rule that defines the length of skirts and sneered at that one which prohibits bare legs.

The delegation's spokesman, a pretty miss of twenty, whose bathing costume was beautiful despite its proper length skirt and tights, declared the one-piece suit is not so much of an issue as the bare-legged stuff. "Maybe we'd like to get our legs sunburned once in a while," she said.

The "law" listened patiently and then replied: "I am only enforcing the law, obey or take the consequences."

"Smarty!" chorused the delegation and swished out of the office muttering something about "What's happened to the men; seems the sight of a bare leg is becoming disgusting to them?"

And every day some rebellious maiden troops merrily down to the beach in defiance of the law and is brought into court and fined.

"Devil's Darning Needle."

The darning needle, or devil's darning needle, is one of the names given to the dragon fly, which belongs to the order, Odonata. Other popular names for this insect are "snake feeders," "snake doctors," "horse-biters," "flying adders," etc., though dragon flies are harmless, as well as useful in killing mosquitoes and little flies. Young dragon flies and the young of other insects, such as many flies, while in the intermediate stage between the eggs and the mature insect, live in water and are called "nymphs." Many of them live for a year in this stage in ponds before transforming into adult dragon flies.

BALL PARK THE SCENE TODAY OF MORTAL COMBAT

The ball park this afternoon is the scene of mortal combat with the Indian tribes of Birmingham and Albany-Decatur clashing in their first engagement to settle the disputed baseball championship of Kiwanian realms.

The local club defeated the Huntsville Kiwanians in Huntsville by a score of 10 to 9 and intends conquering the Birminghamers in a larger degree. A return engagement will be played in Birmingham at a later date. The Morgan club will make its first appearance this afternoon in the new uniforms. The uniforms are of grey, with red trimmings and the letters "M. K." in blue are on the shirt fronts.

Birmingham has kept the line up appearing for the Magic City cloaked in deepest mystery and nothing is known here of the strength of the visitors.

Tonight the Birmingham crowd and a delegation of Braves from Huntsville will be entertained on a boat excursion.

FIRST AERIAL FUNERAL HELD; ASHES ARE THROWN TO WINDS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, July 8.—Probably the strangest funeral that ever took place in New York was held recently for Mrs. Sarah D. Brown, temperance worker and writer of children's stories.

It was the first aerial funeral held here. Mrs. Brown's body was cremated and an urn containing the ashes was taken to the pier at Eighty-sixth street, Hudson River. After funeral services on the pier Miss Kate Brown, daughter of Mrs. Brown, handed the urn to an undertaker, and her brother gave nine white carnations and two red ones, symbolizing the ninety-two years of Mrs. Brown's life to Lieutenant Frank Mallen, of the Marines.

Lieutenant Mallen and the undertaker boarded a seaplane, which left the pier about noon and flew over the Statue of Liberty. The undertaker scattered the ashes over the statue and Lieutenant Mallen dropped the roses. A ritual service was read in the air and the plane flew back.

This disposition of her remains was dictated by Mrs. Brown in a letter written fourteen years ago, sealed and unopened until after death.
